

GOOD BYE LENIN!

Thursday 31 October, 18.00

Director: Wolfgang Becker. Germany 2003. 121 mins. Doors open at 1730.

To protect his fragile mother from a fatal shock after a long coma, a young man must keep her from learning that her beloved nation of East Germany has disappeared.

Free film screening in the recently listed Brutalist extension to the Architecture Department at Scroope Terrace, opened in 1959 by Le Corbusier and Henry Moore.

+ Panel Discussion

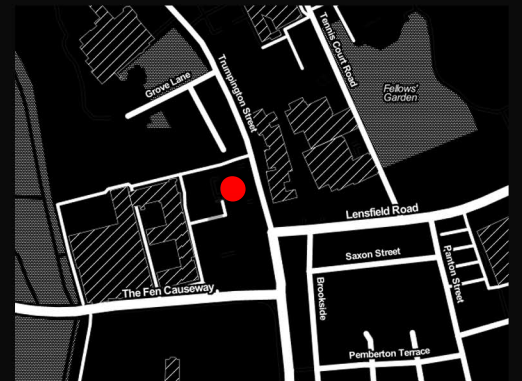

Dr. Maximilian Sternberg (University Lecturer, Cambridge)

Dr. Camillo Boano (Senior Lecturer, UCL)

Dr. Henriette Steiner (Research Associate, ETH Zurich)

Prof. Andrew Webber (Professor of Modern German and Comparative Culture, Cambridge)

+ Exhibition of student work

Architectural Projections gratefully acknowledges the support of:

ARCSOC

FeildenCleggBradleyStudios

Foster + Partners

BDP.