

Good Deeds, Smallest Evils or Pacts with the Devil?

A series of workshops investigating how 'cultural' and 'creative' work is tied up in processes of urban regeneration.

Alberto Duman, Guggenheim Walthamstow (2005)

Workshop 1

The Politics of Funding (and Issues with Criticality)

Saturday 25 January, 10am-3:30pm

Workshop 2

Fight or Flight? (Resistance Versus Engagement)

Saturday 08 March, 10am-3:30pm

Workshop 3

Instant 'Community' versus Long-Term Involvement

Saturday 26 April, 10am-3:30pm

Free. All welcome.

A selection of preparatory readings for each session is available at: cambridge-design-research-studio.com/gooddeeds

Good deeds... is curated by Luke Cooke-Yarborough and Julika Gittner supported by Cambridge Design Research Studio, University of Cambridge (www.cambridge-design-research-studio.com)

The venue is kindly provided by The Sir John Cass Faculty of Art, Architecture and Design (London Metropolitan University)

The Sir John Cass Faculty of Art, Architecture and Design
Central House, 4th Floor,
59-63 Whitechapel High Street
London
E1 7PF
www.thecass.com

For further info: gooddeedssmallestevils@gmail.com

CAMBRIDGE
DESIGN
RESEARCH
STUDIO

